The process of accepting foreign patients

The patient through the facilitator

Refer the patient directly to the hospital

Health Tourism Unit

His doctor determined by the physician health tourism

Unit acceptance along with expert health tourism

Documents and patient information collected by the receptionist

Filing patient out of turn

Personal belongings and package delivery tightening by the receptionist

Help the patient to the desired section by expert IPD

Welcome and introduction by nurse IPD features section

Help patients to hospitalization and bed